(Formerly: Acts 1971, P.L.416, SEC.7.)

IC 30-4-6-2

Continuing jurisdiction

Sec. 2. (Continuing Jurisdiction)

IC 30-4-6-3

Venue

Sec. 3. (Venue)

(a) Unless the terms of the trust provide otherwise, venue in this state for matters arising under this article shall be exclusively in the county in which the principal place of administration of the trust is located. The principal place of administration of a trust is that usual place at which the records pertaining to the trust are kept or, if there is no such place, the trustee's residence. If there are co-trustees, the principal place of administration is either that of the corporate trustee, if there is only one (1); that of the individual trustee who has custody of the records, if there is but one (1) such person and there is no corporate co-trustee; or, if neither of these alternatives apply, that of any of the co-trustees.

(b) If the principal place of administration is maintained in another state, venue in this state for any matters arising under this article shall be in the county stipulated in writing by the parties to the trust or, if there is no such stipulation, in the county where the trust property, or the evidence of the trust property, which is the subject of the action is either situated or generally located.

(c) Any party to an action or proceeding shall be entitled to a change of venue or change of judge as provided in the Indiana Rules of Procedure. A change of venue in any action shall not be construed to authorize a permanent change of venue for all matters arising under this article, and, upon conclusion of the action, venue shall return to the court where the action was initiated.

(Formerly: Acts 1971, P.L.416, SEC.7.)

IC 30-4-6-4

- (1) a trustee need not docket a trust in the records of the court nor may the court require a trust to be docketed; and
- (2) with respect to a decedent's estate docketed for the purpose of probate or administration, which either establishes a trust or makes a devise to another trust, the court shall have no continuing jurisdiction over the administration of the trust after any distribution from the estate is paid or delivered to the trustee.

Sec. 6. (Notice)

(a) Notice must be given to any person or his personal representative who is named as a party in a petition or complaint, whose rights may be affected or upon whom a liability might be imposed by any proceeding; to the Attorney General if the trust is for a benevolent public purpose; and to any other person whom the court may order to be given notice.

(b) The form of notice required shall be in the form of a summons as provided for in the Indiana Rules of Procedure or in such other form as may be ordered or approved by the court.

(e) The court shall give notice in any case in which it acts on its own motion.

(f) Any person not under a legal disability or a personal representative may waive in writing notice of the proceeding.

(g) An order of the court is binding as to all persons who are given notice of the proceeding, even though less than all interested persons receive notice.

IC 30-4-6-7

Docketing as part of proceeding

Sec. 7. (Docketing as Part of Proceeding)

(a) If it is necessary to the determination of any issue of law or fact in a proceeding, the court may direct that a copy of the trust instrument, if any, be kept in its records.

(b) The filing of the trust instrument under subsection (a) of this section shall not result in continuing supervisory jurisdiction by the court. Upon conclusion of the proceeding, the trust instrument shall be removed from the court's records.

IC 30-4-6-8

Bonding

Sec. 8. (Bonding)

(a) Unless the terms of the trust provide otherwise, the trustee need not provide a bond to secure his performance as trustee.

(c) Upon petition by an interested party, the court may direct the trustee to provide a bond to secure his performance as such, if the court deems it reasonably necessary to protect the interest of any beneficiary.

(d) Unless the terms of the trust provide otherwise, the court may, in its discretion, direct a trustee appointed by the court under 30-4-3-29 to file a bond to secure the performance of his duties.

(e) In any case in which bond is required, unless otherwise specified, the court shall determine the amount, term and surety of the bond to be provided. The court may also excuse a requirement of bond, reduce or increase the amount of the bond, release the surety, or permit substitution of another bond with the same or different sureties.

(Formerly: Acts 1971, P.L.416, SEC.7.)

IC 30-4-6-9

Suit on bond

Sec. 9. (Suit on Bond)

(a) The court may, on breach of the obligation of the bond of the trustee, after notice to the obligors on the bond and to such other persons as the court directs, determine the damages, and by appropriate proceeding enforce the collection thereof from those liable on the bond. Such determination and enforcement may be made by the court upon its own motion or upon application of a successor trustee, or of any other interested person. Damages may be assessed on behalf of all interested persons and may be paid over to the successor or other non-defaulting trustee or any other person the court may direct.

(b) The bond of the trustee shall not be void upon the first recovery, but may be proceeded upon from time to time until the whole penalty is exhausted.

(c) If the court has already determined the liability of the trustee, the sureties shall not be permitted thereafter to deny such liability in any action or hearing to determine their liability; but the surety may intervene in any hearing to determine the liability of the trustee.
